

Brief Biography of Luke Korkowski

Luke obtained an undergraduate degree from Baylor University, a MBA from Texas Christian University, and a law degree from The George Washington University Law School. After law school, he served for one year as a clerk to Justice Jim Rice on the Montana Supreme Court. In 2006, Luke started a transactional law firm, Korkowski Law, LLC, in Crested Butte that provides business, real estate, and estate planning legal services to clients in the Gunnison Valley, throughout Colorado, and across the U.S. Luke's primary job as an attorney is to assist entrepreneurs with starting their businesses. He is involved in a number of other businesses as well.

Luke is married and has two young children.